

Member Center | Create Account | Log In

Friday, April 9, 2010

Southern Colorado's News Leader

RIGHT NOW: Colorado Springs 65° Pueblo 71°

Local charity in national spotlight

By Stephanie Collins

Posted : Apr 4, 2010 8:05 PM

Updated: Apr 5, 2010 2:36 PM

Former pro-wrestler Bill Goldberg, currently on NBC's Celebrity Apprentice, is competing for a non-profit in Divide.

Every summer dozens of kids spend a week on the One Good Turn Ranch in Divide. All the kids here have lost a parent in war, have a terminal illness or are handicapped.

Joey Truscelli started the ranch three years ago. Last summer, former pro-wrestler Bill Goldberg came out to help. Goldberg is now a contestant on celebrity apprentice, playing for Truscelli's charity, "When he left here I think the boys touched him so much that he was going on to Celebrity Apprentice and he said, man I'm going to play for these boys and this ranch," says Truscelli.

If Goldberg wins, One Good Turn Ranch gets $250,000, hopefully he'll never have to hear those two dreaded words, "You're fired."

The winner will be announced May 23rd. The Apprentice airs Sunday nights at 8:00, on News First 5.

For more on the One Good Turn Ranch 4Kids click here.

For more on Communities 4Kids click here.